

Sunday 2018

7:00-8:00 (60 minutes)	Open Cadavers	Keola Chun, MD Pat Walsh, MED, ATC John Caranci
7:50-8:00 (10 minutes)	Welcome	Jim Clover, MED, ATC, PTA, CPT
8:00-8:45 (45 minutes)	“Therapeutic Exercise: Misconceptions and Missing Links”	Adam Stewart DPT, ATC, LAT Physical therapist working with football @ The Ohio State University
8:45-9:15 (30 minutes)	“Finding my Why”	Sottie Parker, MS, ATC Athletic Trainer
9:15-9:55 (40 minutes)	Wearable’s the future in sport medicine	Doug Calland MS, ATC Head athletic trainer overseeing the football program and all aspects of athletic training The Ohio State University
9:55- 10:20 (25 Minutes)	BREAK	Visit Exhibits
10:20-11:00 (40 minutes)	Staffing in the college sports medicine environment? (differences across divisions, academic v. medical models, relationship to injury	Christine Baugh, MPH Christine Baugh, MPH Ph.D. Candidate in Health Policy, Harvard University
11:00-11:35 (35 minutes)	“What works and doesn't work with whole-body vibration”	Nicole Dabbs, Ph.D. Associate Professor Biomechanics and Sport Performance Laboratory Department of Kinesiology, California State University, San Bernardino
11:35-12:10 (45 minutes)	Working as a team in the high school setting	Bill Gunn Athletic Director Centennial High School Danna Dye, MS, ATC Head athletic Trainer Centennial High School Bill Pollock, PA Sports Med. Staff
12:00-1:00 (60 minutes) Concurrent Section	Cadaver Specimen Plus Evaluations	Dr. Chun, Dr. d’Arc